EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Massey on April 18, 2004.

1. Amend the Claims as follows:

IN THE CLAIMS:

Claim 62, line 1, delete first occurrence of the term "treating".

Remarks

The above amendment places this case in condition for allowance.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The claims are allowable over the cited prior art because the prior art does not teach, disclose nor make obvious the claimed method of treating cognitive deficits in learning and memory in individuals in need thereof, the method comprising administering to the individual an effective amount of a mecamylamine or a mecamylamine stereoisomer.

The prior art of record, Crooks et al. teach nicotine analogs that have nicotinic receptor antagonist properties are useful in treatment of cognitive disorders such as Alzheimer's disease and for the treatment of Parkinson's disease. The presently claimed aspect of the disclosed invention relates to "a mecamylamine or a mecamylamine stereoisomer", no "nicotine antagonists" are claimed. Accordingly, the prior art does not teach a mecamylamine or a mecamylamine stereoisomer for the treatment of cognitive deficits in learning and memory in individuals. Therefore, there is no motivation of employing mecamylamine or a mecamylamine stereoisomer for the treatment of cognitive deficits in learning and memory in individuals without specific teaching or suggestion from the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
